In relation to spending on innovation activities in companies of 10 or more employees, the highest spending was concentrated in the regions that include the capitals. Nevertheless, the degree of concentration is different, especially in Gipuzkoa. Both in Álava and in Bizkaia, the regions which include the capitals (Llanada Alavesa and Gran Bilbao, respectively) account for around 86.4% and 79.0% of their province's spending, while this proportion is less in Gipuzkoa, with Donostialdea representing 46.0% of total spending on innovation.

In Álava, out of 384.7 million in expenditure, 332.5 was in Llanada Alavesa and in Bizkaia, out of 1,033.8 million, 816.6 million was spent in Gran Bilbao. However, in Gipuzkoa, out of 661.6 million, 304.2 million was spent in Donostialdea. Also worthy of mention are the regions of Duranguesado in Bizkaia (133.2 million) and Alto Deba in Gipuzkoa (104.3 million), where spending exceeded 100 million.

As regards the capitals, expenditure on innovative activities reached 324.7 million in Vitoria-Gasteiz, 280.8 million in Bilbao and 192.3 million in Donostia, representing 84.4%, 27.2% and 29.1% of provincial expenditure, respectively.
