

There were 2,271 marriages in the second quarter of 2022, up 24.8% on the previous year

93% of husbands and 86.8% of wives were over the age of 30

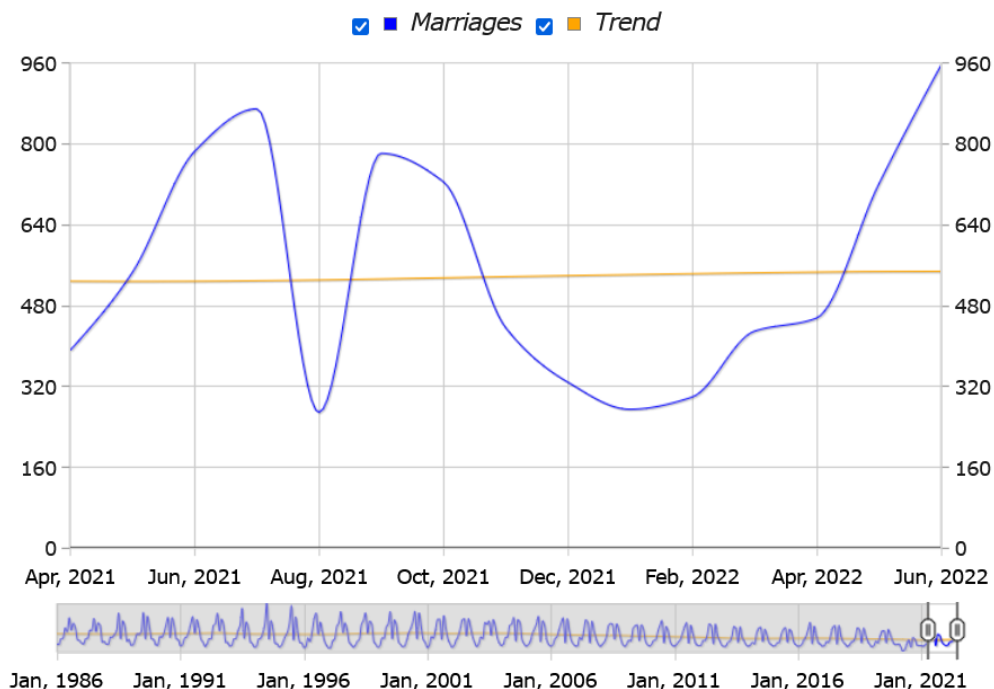

The number of marriages in the Basque Country during the second quarter of 2022 rose to 2,271, which was 24.8% more than in the same quarter of the previous year (1,820), according to Eustat data. Comparing data from this quarter with that from the same quarter of 2019 reveals a 4.5% rise in the number of marriages. This data indicates that marriages postponed in the past two years are now taking place. Of the total number of marriages, 2,212 were heterosexual marriages and the other 59 were between people of the same sex, 36 between women and 23 between men.

Taking into account the province where the marriage was registered, all three provinces saw an increase in the number of marriages: there were 1,037 weddings in Bizkaia, 268 in Álava and 818 in Gipuzkoa. On the other hand, 148 marriages were registered outside the Basque Country.

As is common in the second quarter, the number of unions rose considerably, above all in the month of June, which saw 44.9% of the weddings celebrated in the quarter.
