A more detailed look reveals that the main customs duty group, with 2,505 million in exports, was “Passenger cars with fewer than 10 seats”, despite experiencing a downturn of 16.3%. Next came “Vehicle parts and accessories” with an increase of 2.9%, reaching 2,157 million euros, followed by “Goods transport vehicles”, with 1,369 million and a decrease of 31.6%. Among the top ten customs duty groups, the greatest increase in exports (248.1%) was recorded for “Petroleum oils or oils obtained from bituminous minerals”, with 385.8 million in exports, 275 million euros more than in the same period of the previous year.

“Refined petroleum oils” were down 10.1% and “New rubber tyres” 28.5%, which, in absolute terms, was 142.6 and 384.7 million less than in November 2023. Another notable drop was recorded for “Seamless tubes and hollow profiles made of iron or steel”, which fell by 195 million compared to the previous year (29.1%).

The export ranking for the first eleven months of 2024 placed France as the prime receiver country of Basque exports, with 15.9% of the total exported. France was followed by Germany (14.4%) and the United Kingdom (7.1%). Between them, these three countries accounted for 37.4% of Basque exports.

Cumulative imports for the Basque Country as a whole up to November 2024 amounted to 25,114.9 million euros. In the year-on-year comparison, this figure was 55 million euros up on the equivalent for the same period of 2023.

The products that occupied the top three positions in the import ranking were: “Petroleum oils or oils obtained from bituminous minerals”, with 4,606.8 million (18.3% of the total); “Refined petroleum oils”, with 1,591 million in imports (6.3% of the total); and “Vehicle parts and accessories”, with 895.3 million (3.6% of the total).

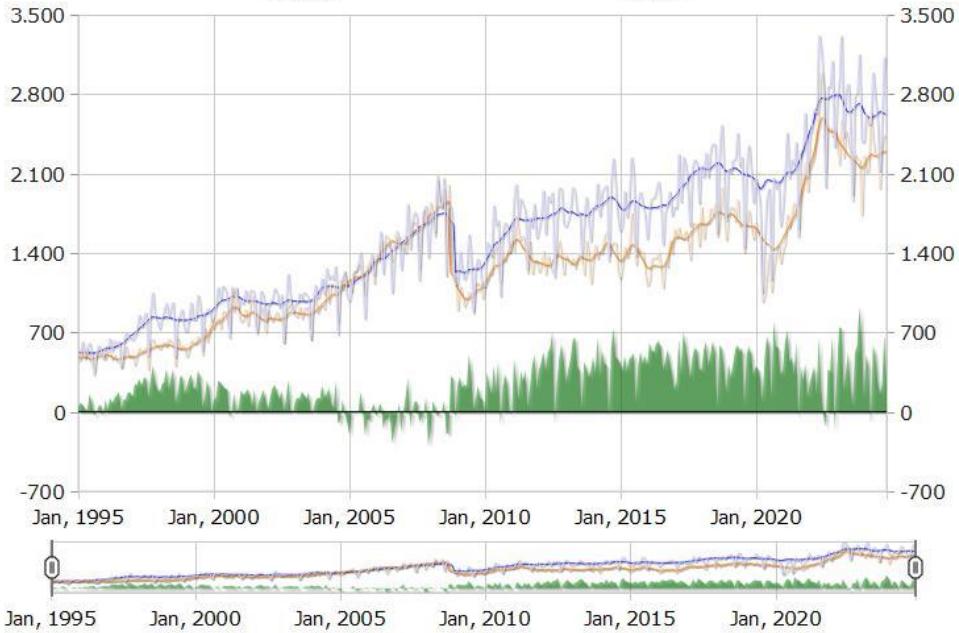

Foreign trade of goods in the Basque Country during the first eleven months of 2024 had a positive balance of 3,609 million euros, 1,596 million less than that registered during the same period of the previous year, resulting in a coverage rate of 114.4%. This rate was over 100, i.e., exports exceeded imports, in respect of almost all EU27 countries, the exceptions being Ireland (13.8%), Luxembourg, (88.5%), Finland (89.4%), Latvia (52.4%) and Bulgaria (96.6%).

As for the countries at the top of the export ranking, this rate was 111.7% for Germany, 228.5% for France and 326.7% for the United Kingdom.
